

Hispanic/Latino Alumni Council (HLAC)
HLAC Seventeenth Anniversary Scholars Award Application
Deadline: Friday, May 12, 2017

HLAC Mission: To promote the professional advancement and scholastic pursuits of Hispanic/Latino Alumni and undergraduate students.

In keeping with its Mission, the Hispanic/Latino Alumni Council (HLAC) Seventeenth Anniversary Scholar Awards is granted to select Latino undergraduate students who have demonstrated scholastic achievement, campus and community involvement. The recipients will receive a one-time Barnes & Noble gift card to defray the cost of books and supplies.

INSTRUCTIONS

Criteria:

- A full time Latino undergraduate student who is applying for the award for the first time.
- A current cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better. A copy of the complete transcript must be attached to this application. First year students must submit a High School transcript.
- Two (2) letters of recommendation: One must be from a faculty member. For first semester students only, a recommendation letter from a High School teacher is acceptable.
- Personal Statement: A 500-word single-space typed essay that includes the following: academic achievements, career goals, and campus and community service. It should also include why you are applying for the scholastic award, and any other information relevant to this application.
- Note: The essay may be written in Spanish or English
